In accordance with current legislation regarding the protection of personal data, you are informed of the following points:

1. We can make videos and/or photographic reports during the events that take place at the Dalias flea market.
2. The resulting audiovisual material may be shared with the public through the media, publication on websites, blogs, newsletters or social networks, without limitation.
3. The legitimacy of the processing in your consent and in our legitimate interest in informing the public about our events and activities based on the fundamental right to freedom of expression and information and under the protection of the provisions of Article 8.2.c) of Law 1/1982 of May 5, on civil protection of the right to honor, personal and family privacy and self-image.
4. The audiovisual material will be cancelled when the information is obsolete or no longer has relevance or public interest.
5. The General Data Protection Regulations recognise a series of rights for natural or legal persons. You have the right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not we are processing your personal data and, if so, to access it. You may also request that your data be rectified when it is inaccurate or that incomplete data be completed, as well as request its deletion when, among other reasons, the data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected. In certain circumstances, you may request a limitation of the processing of your data. In such a case, we will only process the data concerning the formulation, exercise or defence of claims or with a view to protecting the rights of others. Under certain conditions and on grounds relating to your particular situation, you may also object to the processing of your data. In this case, we will stop processing your data, except for compelling legitimate reasons that take precedence over your interests, rights and freedoms, or for the formulation, exercise or defence of claims. You may also, under certain conditions, request the portability of your data to be transmitted to another data controller. In order to exercise your rights, you must send us a request accompanied by a copy of your national identity document or another valid document that identifies you.
